PART II -- WRITTEN STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION*(Check one or both, as applicable.)*

- ☒ (1) I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establish by clear and convincing evidence as to danger that:
Based upon the alleged offenses and defendant's criminal history.
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

¹Insert as applicable: Title 18, § 1201 (kidnapping), § 1591 (sex trafficking), § 2241 (aggravated sexual abuse), § 2242 (sexual abuse), § 2244(a)(1)(abusive sexual contact), § 2245 (offenses resulting in death), § 2251 (sexual exploitation of children), § 2251A (selling or buying of children), § 2252 et seq. (certain activities relating to material involving sexual exploitation of minors), § 2252A et seq. (certain activities relating to material constituting or containing child pornography), § 2260 (production of sexually explicit depictions of minors for importation into the U.S.), § 2421 (transportation for prostitution or a criminal sexual activity offense), § 2422 (coercion or enticement for a criminal sexual activity), § 2423 (transportation of minors with intent to engage in criminal sexual activity), § 2425 (use of interstate facilities to transmit information about a minor).

- ☒ (2) I find by a preponderance of the evidence as to risk of flight that:

- ☒ In addition:
Defendant has an extensive similar criminal history before this court and other local courts. Defendant's history before this court can be summarized as follows. On 8-1-07 defendant pled guilty to being under the influence of alcohol. She was found passed out in her vehicle with her small minor child in a baby seat. The court placed defendant on one year of supervised probation with alcohol treatment. On 3-12-08 defendant pled guilty to driving on a DUI suspended driver's license and was sentenced to 48 hours in jail. On 8-20-08 defendant's probation was revoked for again being under the influence of alcohol. The defendant had been driving after drinking and left her small children home alone with no supervision. On the new charge defendant was placed on three years supervised probation with alcohol treatment. On 12-13-10 defendant's probation was again terminated for failing to submit monthly supervision reports and failing to attend substance abuse treatment. Defendant was sentenced to fourteen days in custody. A little over two weeks after being released from custody defendant is again before the court alleged to have been driving under the influence of alcohol with her six year old daughter in the vehicle. Defendant is alleged to have registered a 0.202 BAC and 0.192 BAC on the Intoxilyzer. By a preponderance of the evidence the court concludes the defendant would be incapable of following any release conditions the court might set and would not appear. By clear and convincing evidence the court concludes the defendant constitutes a danger to others and specifically her minor children by continuing to consume alcohol to excess notwithstanding extensive treatment.

The Court incorporates by reference the findings of the Pretrial Services Agency which were reviewed by the Court at the time of the hearing in this matter.

PART III -- DIRECTIONS REGARDING DETENTION

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his/her designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

PART IV -- APPEALS AND THIRD PARTY RELEASE

IT IS ORDERED that should an appeal of this detention order be filed with the District Court, it is counsel's responsibility to deliver a copy of the motion for review/reconsideration to Pretrial Services at least one day prior to the hearing set before the District Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if a release to a third party is to be considered, it is counsel's responsibility to notify Pretrial Services sufficiently in advance of the hearing before the Court to allow Pretrial Services an opportunity to interview and investigate the potential third party custodian.

DATED this 21st day of January, 2011.
